PERSONAL SERVICE CONTRACT FOR
PRESCRIPTION OPIOID PRODUCTS LITIGATION

BETWEEN

THE COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY

OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

AND

MORGAN & MORGAN PLLC
Suite 1200, 333 West Vine Street
Lexington, KY 40507

This Personal Service Contract (PSC) is entered into, by and between the Commonwealth of Kentucky, Office of the Attorney General ("the Commonwealth" or "OAG") and Morgan & Morgan, PLLC, ("the Contractor") to establish a contract for Prescription Opioid Products Litigation. The initial PSC is effective from 7/01/2022 through 6/30/2024.

The Commonwealth and Contractor agree to the following:

I. Scope of Contract

Legal services include, but are not limited to:

Investigating, litigating and resolving claims against Amerisource Bergen Drug Corporation (ABDC), McKesson Corporation (McKesson), Cardinal Health 100, Inc. (Cardinal), Johnson & Johnson and Janssen Pharmaceuticals, Inc., (together "J&J"), and HD Smith, (as well as any similarly situated defendants who have engaged in similar conduct) including their subsidiaries, partners, contractors, subcontractors, trusts and trust beneficiaries, predecessors, successors or parent entities regarding the manufacturing, sale, and distribution of prescription opioid products within the Commonwealth of Kentucky.

Contractor shall assist in all phases of the investigation and litigation, including preparation of complaint(s), filing of complaint(s) and service of summons, responding to motions, including motions to dismiss; drafting and answering discovery propounded upon the Commonwealth or any of its agencies; tracking documents obtained in discovery; coordinating litigation with other states and the federal government to promote, to the extent beneficial, a unified approach to litigation; taking depositions; defending depositions noticed by the defendants; preparing relevant witnesses for depositions; responding to motions for summary judgment or other pretrial dispositive motions; identification of experts to testify in favor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky or other state agencies; preparation of expert witnesses for deposition or trial testimony; assessing the strength of legal arguments propounded by the litigants; preparation of legal arguments on motions; dealing with discovery disputes; representing the Commonwealth of Kentucky in trial or in any settlement negotiations that may occur; representing the Commonwealth of Kentucky in responding to post-trial motions; representing the Commonwealth of Kentucky in the appeal(s) of any judgment or verdict rendered in any such action(s) and, if applicable, the remand from appeal(s), and representing the Commonwealth in bankruptcy matters, including appearing at hearings, soliciting discovery, negotiating with any relevant parties, filing proofs of claims and all other actions necessary to protect the interests of Kentucky.

The Office of Consumer Protection within the Office of the Attorney General (OCP/OAG) has determined that the contingency fee is both cost-effective and in the public interest. Further the OCP/OAG has determined that sufficient and appropriate legal and financial resources do not exist within the OCP/OAG to pursue the litigation without outside counsel. The OCP/OAG anticipates that the amount of time and labor required to perform the requested services exceeds that available. In addition, the novelty, complexity, and difficulty of the matter are such that outside counsel is needed. The skill required to perform the requested services properly is of the highest level, and the geographic area where the legal services are to be provided will likely involve work in major metropolitan areas of the country. The OCP/OAG has determined that experience in highly complex civil litigation involving multiple defendants is desired for the particular kind of legal services to be provided.

II. Contract Components and Order of Precedence

The Commonwealth's acceptance of the Contractor's offer in response to the Solicitation, indicated by the issuance of a Contract Award shall create a valid contract between the Parties consisting of the following:

1. Procurement Statutes, Regulations and Policies
2. Any written Agreement between the Parties.

In the event of any conflict between or among the provisions contained in the contract, the order of precedence shall be as enumerated above.

III. Negotiated Items

Not Applicable.

IV. Pricing

Contingency Fee Basis - Contractor agrees to advance litigation costs and expenses incurred by its own attorneys and staff, including but not limited to travel, meals, mileage, lodging, photocopying, postage, electronic legal research fees, etc. Additionally, Contractor agrees to advance costs of any, and all, expert witnesses, consultants, translation services, etc., as may be necessary in furtherance of this case. Contractor will consult with the OCP/OAG before employing any expert witnesses, consultants or translators. The OCP/OAG shall have the final approval of the retention of any expert witnesses or consultants and any fee arrangements paid to those individuals.

(3) A contingency fee shall not exceed:

- (a) Twenty percent (20%) of the amount recovered up to ten million dollars ($10,000,000);
- (b) Fifteen percent (15%) of the amount recovered between ten million dollars ($10,000,000) and fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000);

- (d) Five percent (5%) of the amount recovered of twenty million dollars ($20,000,000) or more.

(4) A contingency fee shall not exceed twenty million dollars ($20,000,000), regardless of the number of actions or proceedings or the number of attorneys or law firms involved in the matter, and exclusive of any costs and expenses provided for by the contract and actually incurred by the legal services contractor.

(5) A contingency fee shall be payable only from money that is actually received pursuant to a judgment or settlement agreement, and any judgment or settlement funds shall be disbursed in accordance with KRS 48.005.

In addition, the reasonable costs and expenses actually incurred and advanced by the Contractor in connection with its representation of the Commonwealth including reasonable travel, expert witness fees, court reporters and transcript costs, filing fees, and other reasonable costs and expenses as approved by the OAG shall be paid from the gross recovery.

In the event that any or all of the claims covered under this contract are resolved through individual settlement, multi-state settlement or a bankruptcy proceeding where provisions of the settlement or bankruptcy provide for the direct payment of fees and expenses of the Contractor, the Parties agree the provisions of any such settlement or bankruptcy shall be the exclusive source of payment for the claim(s) under this contract and waives the contingency fee provisions contained herein related to the claim(s).

V. Invoicing

The Contractor shall provide gross monetary recovery for deposit to the Commonwealth State Treasurer per KRS 48.005(3). Contractor shall attempt to recover all fees and costs directly and separately from Defendants in any action(s) initiated under this contract. If at the conclusion of all actions and upon award or settlement, Contractor is unable to recover fees and costs directly from Defendants, Contractor shall provide an invoice to the OCP/OAG for actual costs and expenses, travel performed in pursuit of Commonwealth recovery, expert witness fees, court reporters and transcript costs, filing fees and other approved reasonable costs and expenses.

2200003024	Litigation Opioid-Distributors

This section applies only to contracts disbursing federal funds, in whole or part, when the terms for receiving those funds mandate its inclusion. Discrimination (because of race, religion, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, or disability) is prohibited. The Contractor agrees to provide, upon request, needed reasonable accommodations. The Contractor will take affirmative action to ensure that applicants are employed and that employees are treated during employment without regard to their race, religion, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, age or disability. Such action shall include, but not be limited to the following: employment, upgrading, demotion or transfer; recruitment or recruitment advertising; layoff or termination; rates of pay or other forms of compensations; and selection for training, including apprenticeship. The Contractor agrees to post in conspicuous places, available to employees and applicants for employment, notices setting forth the provisions of this non-discrimination clause.

In all solicitations or advertisements for employees placed by or on behalf of the Contractor, the Contractor will state that all qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, religion, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, age or disability.

In the event of the Contractor's noncompliance with the nondiscrimination clauses of this contract or with any of the said rules, regulations or orders, this contract may be cancelled, terminated or suspended in whole or in part, and the Contractor may be declared ineligible for further government contracts or federally-assisted construction contracts in accordance with procedures authorized in Executive Order No. 11246 of September 24, 1965, as amended, and such other sanctions that may be imposed and remedies invoked as provided in or as otherwise provided by law.

The Contractor will include the provisions of paragraphs (1) through (7) of section 202 of Executive Order 11246 in every subcontract or purchase order unless exempted by rules, regulations or orders of the Secretary of Labor, issued pursuant to section 204 of Executive Order No. 11246 of September 24, 1965, as amended, so that such provisions will be binding upon each subcontractor or vendor. The Contractor will take such action with respect to any subcontract or purchase order as the administering agency may direct as a means of enforcing such provisions including sanctions for noncompliance; provided, however, that in the event a Contractor becomes involved in, or is threatened with, litigation with a subcontractor or vendor as a result of such direction by the agency, the Contractor may request the United States to enter into such litigation to protect the interests of the United States.
