To be eligible for the FRC program, parents must be court-involved and have an active DCBS case due to opioid use disorder or any co-occurring substance use disorder or mental health issues. The program's immediate goal is sobriety from opioid use disorder or any co-occurring substance use disorders, and the long-term goal is family reunification. 5. For Clay, Lincoln and Pulaski Counties, the GRANTEE shall address transportation, housing, childcare, and employment barriers for those in its recovery programs. This will include using drivers for transporting participants to doctors' appointments, court appearances, job interviews, etc.; working with landlords to secure affordable housing options; exploring expanding daycares and in-home certifications for clients; and replicating Recovery Reintegration Program, the GRANTEE's workforce development program.
