Dear Kentucky Consumer:

The Office of the Attorney General works with consumers and businesses to address marketplace concerns.

The mediation services provided by the Attorney General’s Office under the Consumer Protection Act assist consumers with problems, complaints, and disagreements over goods or services in the marketplace. Many complaints against businesses are resolved upon notice of the problem to the business by this office.

During our office’s preliminary review of your complaint, if your problem is determined to be outside our office’s jurisdiction, we will return your inquiry and refer you as efficiently as possible to the governmental agency you should contact for assistance. Should your problem be determined appropriate for mediation, we would initiate contact with the company you have indicated in your complaint and request a written response from the company within 30 days. We would then provide you with a copy of the company’s response and work with you to determine if further steps are appropriate. Should you submit a consumer complaint form and mediation ultimately be explored with the business, please keep in mind that it could take 30-40 days before we can provide you with an update.

Our office cannot act as a private attorney for any consumer’s complaint. If you are in need of immediate legal action, please contact a private attorney, and/or consider Small Claims Court if your disputed claim is less than $2,500.00 total. If you do not have a private attorney and are not sure where to begin, please consider utilizing one of the Kentucky Bar Association’s lawyer referral programs for guidance. Information for the regional lawyer referral programs can be found at: https://www.kybar.org/page/lawreferserv.

Thank you.
